LABRIOLA

CHICAGO

Labriola Chicago is home to La Stanza, an elegant Italian restaurant sequestered in the back of their expansive space on the Grand Avenue Overpass at Michigan Avenue. Meaning “the room” in Italian, La Stanza is secluded and refined, with classic Italian dishes from Chef Chris Macchia that are sure to inspire you. The wine list is impressive and approachable, and the craft cocktails from master mixologist Daniel Casteel lift spirits and delight the senses.

If you're looking to take a break from shopping (or the daily grind), Labriola Chicago houses a lively bar and lounge. A casual café area serves breakfast fare starting at 7am on weekdays, and offers lunch and dinner options such as sandwiches, salads, pastas and Neapolitan style pizza, as well as delectable selections from cases of baked goods and homemade breads. The venue also offers catering services and a private party room to help make your next event that much more delicious.
